The laptop screen shows the Azure dashboard with sections for Resource Group, Web Front End, Database, Processes, and Cognitive Services, each containing various charts and metrics.

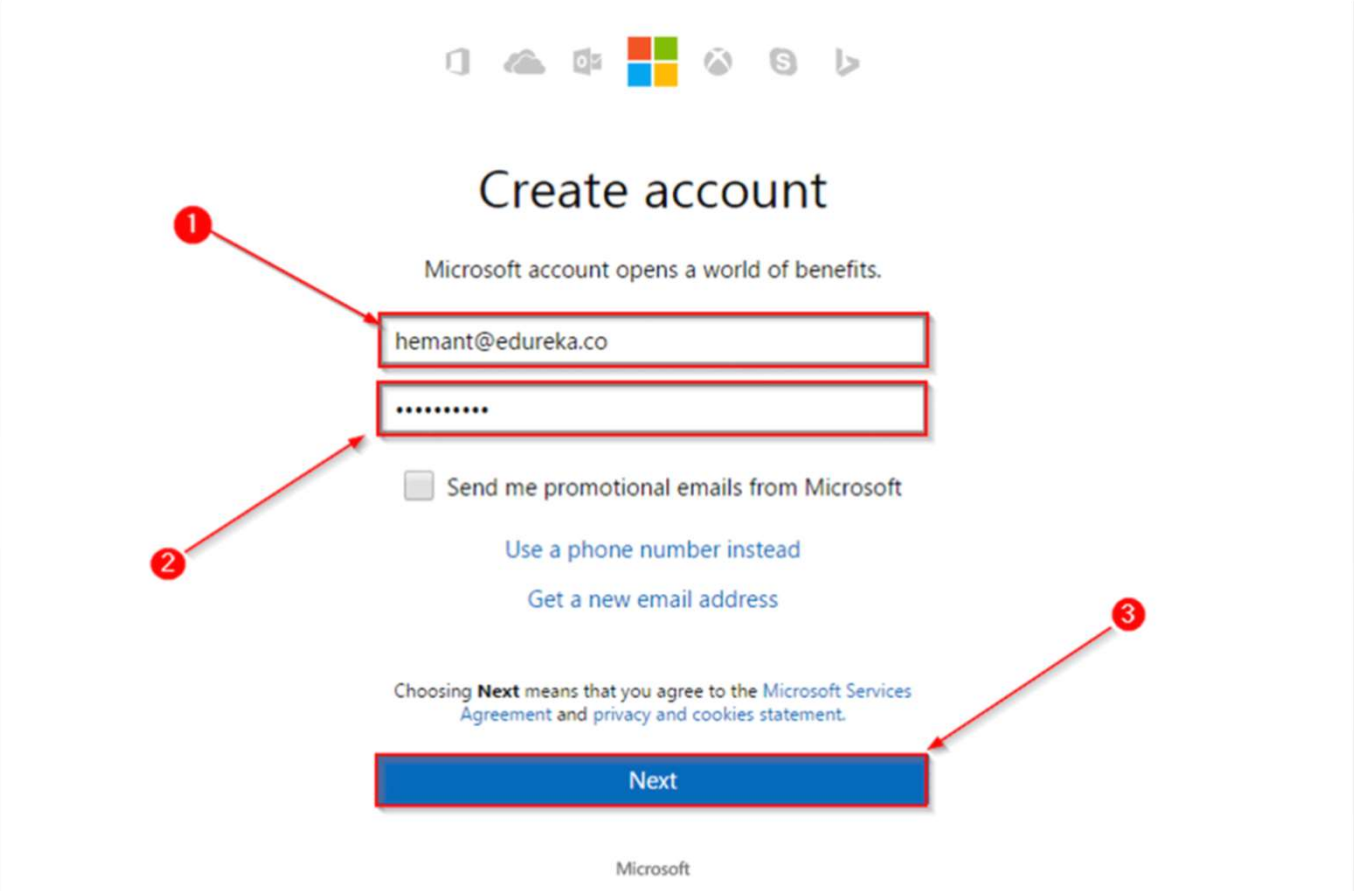

Step 2

- Step 2: Click on Create New Microsoft Account.

Step 3

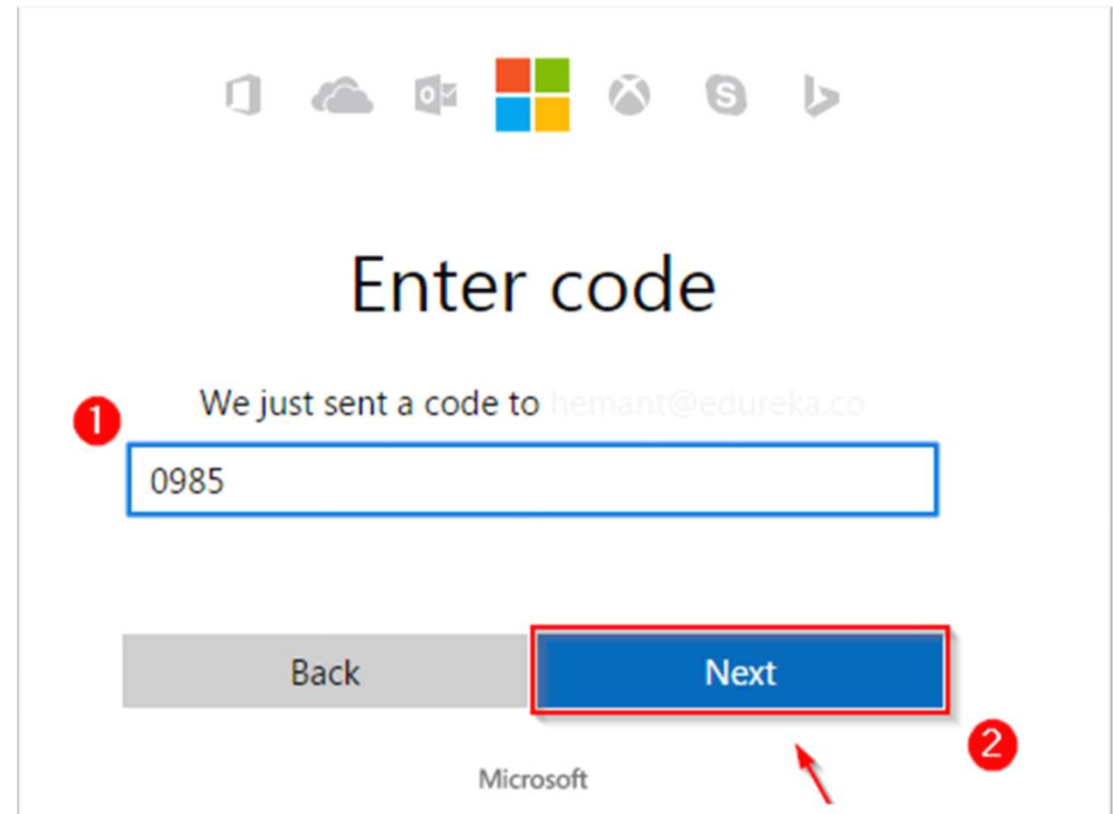

- Do the following steps:
 - Enter you email address
 - Enter a suitable password
 - Click on Create Account

The screenshot shows the Microsoft 'Create account' page. At the top, there are icons for various Microsoft services. The main heading is 'Create account', followed by the text 'Microsoft account opens a world of benefits.' Below this, there are two input fields: the first contains the email address 'hemant@edureka.co' and the second contains a masked password '.....'. A red circle with the number '1' and an arrow points to the email field, and a red circle with the number '2' and an arrow points to the password field. Below the password field, there is a checkbox labeled 'Send me promotional emails from Microsoft'. Below this, there are two links: 'Use a phone number instead' and 'Get a new email address'. Further down, there is a line of text: 'Choosing Next means that you agree to the Microsoft Services Agreement and privacy and cookies statement.' Below this text is a large blue button labeled 'Next'. A red circle with the number '3' and an arrow points to the 'Next' button. At the bottom of the page, the word 'Microsoft' is displayed.

Step 4

- On the next page, do the following things:
 - Enter the verification code sent to email address
 - Click on Verify

The screenshot shows the Microsoft account verification interface. At the top, there is a row of application icons: OneDrive, Cloud, Outlook, the Windows logo, Xbox, Skype, and Edge. Below these icons, the text "Enter code" is displayed in a large, bold font. Underneath, a message states "We just sent a code to hemant@edureka.co". A red circle with the number "1" is positioned to the left of the text. Below the message is a text input field containing the code "0985". At the bottom of the page, there are two buttons: a grey "Back" button and a blue "Next" button. The "Next" button is highlighted with a red rectangular border, and a red circle with the number "2" is placed to its right. A red arrow points from the bottom right towards the "Next" button. The Microsoft logo is centered at the very bottom of the page.
